For the third year, the golf outing is a joint event of the Bowling Proprietors Association of Minnesota & the Tavern League of Minnesota.

Upon arrival, teams will have the option to pay additional money to participate in the "Money Ball Challenge" and/or to buy five mulligans for the team's use. $20.00 each.

This year's event will offer many on-the-course contests and chances at winning prizes. Thank you for your participation and support.

Cost

Golf 18 holes with a cart using a four-person scramble format. Included are drink tickets, entry into the skins game and a pulled pork and chicken with all the fixin's for $420.00 per team or $105.00 per individual.

Prizes

Cash prizes will be paid out to 1 in 4 teams. 1st place team is guaranteed $400. Second place team is guaranteed $200. $100 will be awarded to other teams (1:4) based on a random drawing that will take place during the reception.

Contests

Participate in numerous contests and raffles while golfing, including a hole-in-one shot worth $10,000.

Donations

The BPAM and the Tavern League of Minnesota are now accepting donations for door prizes, hole contests, and goodie bags (smaller items in a quantity of 144). Please turn your donations into the BPAM state office no later than July 1, 2009. Any donations big or small are appreciated.

Sponsorship Opportunities

Looking for a way to promote your business? Choose from three levels of sponsorships. We encourage you to have a representative from your company at the golf hole to maximize exposure.

This year, the BPAM is awarding more than $37,000 in scholarships and awards to youth bowlers in Minnesota. Your participation in this event will help make this level of funding possible in 2009-10.
